Introduction

Tudhoe Learning Trust, expects high standards of conduct from its employees. This document sets out the minimum standards we expect of you and provides a framework to help you understand the protocols which apply to you and gives guidance to help you comply with them.

All employees of the schools within the Trust must maintain the standards and integrity of this Code and carry out their duties honestly and fairly. Employees have a responsibility to ensure they comply with the Code and other Trust or School Policies and procedures. Where employees are referred to in the policy, this should be taken to include volunteers or any other type of worker representing the school/Trust e.g. after school clubs. Employees will be made aware of the Code in recruitment and induction information. Governors and Directors of the Trust have a separate Code of Conduct.

Any policies mentioned within this code are published on the Trust Website via www.tudhoelearningtrust.co.uk and/or are available within the school from the Head Teacher/Office Manager/Administrator.

Throughout the Code of Conduct Policy 'Head Teacher' may be substituted by the 'Chief Executive Officer', 'Chair of Governors', 'Chair or Directors' or 'nominated Governor' respectively, should any issues relate directly to the Head Teacher or the Trust Chief Executive Officer themselves.

Employees who attempt to abuse this code may face disciplinary action. The Trust takes false or misleading accusations very seriously which may result in further action taken through the disciplinary procedure. This will not include ill-founded allegations that were made in good faith.

All information will be handled sensitively and used only for its proper purpose. However confidentiality cannot be guaranteed as information might have to be disclosed where an issue results in formal proceedings.

- Age
- Disability
- Gender reassignment
- Pregnancy and Maternity

Selflessness: You must act solely in terms of the public interest and not in order to gain financial or other material benefits for yourself, family, or friends.

Integrity: You should not place yourself under any financial or other obligation to outside individuals or organisations that might seek to influence you in the performance of your official duties.

- Objectivity: You must make choices on merit when making decisions on appointments, contracts, or recommending rewards and benefits for individuals.
- Accountability: You are accountable for your decisions and actions to the public and you must submit yourself to whatever scrutiny is appropriate.
- Openness: You should be as open as possible about all the decisions and actions that you take. You should give reasons for your decisions and restrict information only when the wider public interest clearly demands.
- Honesty: You have a duty to declare any private interests relating to your work and you need to take steps to resolve any conflicts arising in a way that protects the public interest.
- Leadership: You should promote and support these principles by leadership and example.

When working on behalf of the school/Trust you must:
